large tow of produce boats, arrived from the Ohio river yesterlay afternoon and landed her tow above the meath of Wolfriver. She will drop several boats here. THE canal improvements at La wille are to be quite extensive and will have the effect of greatly improving the harbor. The canal is to be greatly widened at the head and this work will cost about $250,000. THE tug James O'Connor will be compelled to lay up in order to have two new shests put in her boiler. It is probable that the tug W. A. Williams will do harbor service while repairs are being made to the O'Connor.

The first and elegant sidewheel steamer hate Adams, in command of the veteran Capt. Mark R. Cheek, leaves at 5 o'clock this evening for Helena. Terrene, Arkansas City and all way landings, Mr. Wm. Blanker is her clerk.

The Ed Foller field bot leave has night, but laid over mult beday to await the arrival of the Rene Macready. The latter boat is expected in this morning, and her crew will be transferred to the Foster. The Foster will leave this evening for Marianna, the Cutoff and all way landings on St. Franci River.

THE Backeye State landed at Hope

The Backeye S ats landed at Hope field at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, and put off at the wharboat there 700 barrels of sait and 100 barrels of cement. She arrived here ye terday at noon, discharged 4805 packages of freight, added 350 bales of cotten, 15 bales of rags, 100 barrels of oil, 50 barrels of fron, and left at an early hour this morning for Cincinnati. She had a good list of people.

A PRODUCE heat owned by Capt. C.
H. Varian sunk at 2 o'clock yest-rday morning at the wharf below the foot of Union street. The boat, which was about 80 feet long, will prove a total loss. Her cargo consisted of 12 000 head of cabbage and 500 Juss o'clor. All the cabbage will be saved, but about 360 lugs of cider will be lost. Capt. Varian, who is a pleasant goulteman, says the sinking was due to the high wind that prevedled turing the night. Several boats were ity no curside his boat, and the wind belowing hard on abore shoved the other boats against his and crushed in her sides. C. pt. Varian, who is from Levard Falls, Va., ost mates the lose at about $250, and is uninsared.
